Welcome to Festival 2026

We hope you are as excited as we are to delve into Festival 2026. We have eight world premieres, as well as our eagerly anticipated summer musical and Shakespeare's most popular comedy.

In the Festival Theatre are five shows with spectacle and theatricality at their very heart. 'The BFG', 'Magic', 'Atonement', 'My Fair Lady' and 'A Midsummer Night's Dream' will take us on a beautiful journey encompassing puppetry, illusion, romance, music and mischief.

In the intimate Minerva, which allows us to see into people's heads and hearts, five new plays explore family and our place in the world on a very human level: John Morton's wryly funny 'Eclipse'; Hannah Patterson's tense '45 Years'; Emily White's humanely urgent 'Atlantis'; Stephanie Street's unforgettable 'a small and quiet light'; and Nina Segal's blistering 'Antigone Exits'.

All ask searching questions about ourselves and our society, while often making us laugh too. They'll be brought to life by a superb group of directors, designers and actors; keep an eye on our website and social media for further casting updates.

Don't forget to check out our events in The Nest on the website.

December brings a welcome second chance to see the enchanting 'Hey! Christmas Tree', and a sparkling musical version of 'Peter Pan'.

As we share our brand new season with you, no less than six previous CFT productions are playing in London or around the country. It's a powerful testimony to the quality and appeal of the shows we make here that many go on to delight audiences far beyond West Sussex. As the Official London Theatre website put it, "Chichester Festival Theatre has a strong record of West End transfers – and it shows no signs of slowing down."

We look forward to welcoming you.

A Chichester Festival Theatre, Royal Shakespeare Company and Roald Dahl Story Company production

Roald Dahl's

The BFG

Adapted by Tom Wells

With additional material by Jenny Worton

Gather your chiddlers to see Roald Dahl's beloved story come to life this spring. This darkly comic and mischievous new stage adaptation by Tom Wells ('The Kitchen Sink', 'Jumpers For Goalposts'), with additional material by Jenny Worton, is directed by former CFT Artistic Director, current RSC Co-Artistic Director Daniel Evans, whose Chichester productions included 'Quiz', 'South Pacific' and 'Our Generation'.

One extraordinary night, a young orphan named Sophie is snatched by a giant and taken far away to Giant Country. There she learns that human-eating giants are guzzling ‘norphans’ the world over. But she soon discovers that her new friend, the BFG, is different – he’s a dream-catching, snozzcumber-munching gentle soul who refuses to eat humans.

While other giants wreak havoc on the world, the BFG ignites Sophie’s imagination, and they devise a daring plan to save children everywhere. In the end, the smallest human bean and the gentlest giant prove that a dream can change the world.

Following a smash-hit run in Stratford-upon-Avon, this brand new co-production arrives in Chichester to open our season before travelling to Singapore.

Magic

By David Haig

“Exclude the impossible and what is left, however improbable, must be the truth.”

Harry Houdini is the greatest illusionist the world has ever known. Arthur Conan Doyle is the creator of literature’s most brilliant detective, Sherlock Holmes.

Their mutual admiration blossoms into a profound friendship, even as they discover a shared obsession with spiritualism. Conan Doyle believes fervently in the psychic world and the promise of reunion with his dead son; Houdini is determined to demonstrate it’s a cruel fraud. Which of these sparring partners will be proved right: the genius writer of fiction or the infallible magician?

Based on extraordinary historical events, 'Magic' asks what we're prepared to believe, and why.

David Haig's play 'Pressure' (in which he also starred) premiered at Chichester in 2014 and went on to West End and international success; the movie will be released this year. An award-winning actor whose many credits include 'Yes Prime Minister' and 'Someone Who'll Watch Over Me' at Chichester, and on screen 'Killing Eve', 'COBRA', 'Etoile' and 'Four Weddings and a Funeral', David Haig will also play Conan Doyle.

Hadley Fraser plays Houdini, returning to Chichester where he last appeared in 'The Deep Blue Sea'; his London credits include 'The Lehman Trilogy', '2:22' and 'City of Angels'.

Director Lucy Bailey returns to Chichester where her previous work includes 'The Other Boleyn Girl' and 'Tonight at 8.30'.

Eclipse

By John Morton

In the kitchen of an old Devon rectory, the daughter who stayed and the son who moved away make conversation with their current and former partners, the milkman, the postman, the care workers. They talk about the weather, the roads, the toaster, the bins. About anything except the simmering tensions between them, as their father lies mortally ill in the next room.

Until the unspoken emotions and conflicts of years boil over.

‘Eclipse’ is a painfully funny, acute and delicate play about our struggle to communicate, in the face of life and of death. And our infinite capacity for drinking tea.

Writer and director John Morton's award-winning TV series include 'People Like Us', 'Twenty Twenty Six', 'Twenty Twelve' and 'W1A'; this is his first stage play.

Atonement

By Ian McEwan

Adapted for the stage by Christopher Hampton

“I’ll wait for you. Come back. Come back to me.”

On an English country estate during the blazing summer of 1935, 13 year-old Briony Tallis witnesses a passionate scene between her elder sister Cecilia and the son of their housekeeper, Robbie. In a disastrous desire for drama but only a dim understanding of its impact, Briony makes an accusation which will fatally alter Cecilia and Robbie’s lives and many others too – for which she will spend the rest of her life trying to atone.

Stretching from the 1930s through the Second World War to the present day, Ian McEwan’s dazzling masterpiece was shortlisted for the Booker Prize and voted by Time Magazine and the Guardian as one of the 100 greatest novels of the past century.

This world premiere stage adaptation is by Christopher Hampton, whose many plays and adaptations also include 'The Philanthropist' and 'Les Liaisons Dangereuses', which won the Olivier and Evening Standard Awards for Best Play.

Adam Penford, Artistic Director of Nottingham Playhouse where his recent work includes James Graham's award-winning 'Punch', also in the West End and on Broadway, makes a welcome return to Chichester following his 2023 production of 'The Sound of Music'.

Geraldine James

45 Years

From the film by Andrew Haigh

Adapted for the stage by Hannah Patterson

“If she hadn’t died, if you had got to Italy – would you have married her for real?”

Buried for decades, the body of a young woman is found in the melting ice. A thousand miles and 45 years away... a crack forms in the crystal of a marriage.

It’s the week leading up to Kate and Geoff’s wedding anniversary and preparations for the party are in full swing. As they choose the music for their first dance, a letter from Switzerland quietly shatters their world.

Is the past another country? Or are the secrets in the attic of our memory destined to return?

Adapted from Andrew Haigh's critically acclaimed 2015 film, '45 Years' is an achingly tense, intimate and moving dance to the music of time.

Hannah Patterson's plays include 'Eden' (Hampstead Theatre) and 'Playing With Grown Ups' (Theatre503), nominated for an OffWestEnd Award and the Susan Smith Blackburn Award, which transferred to 59E59 in New York.

Director Prasanna Puwanarajah makes his CFT debut; his recent work includes 'Twelfth Night' at the RSC, for which he won the 2025 UK Theatre Award for Best Director.

Geraldine James comes to Chichester for the first time in her distinguished career to play Kate. Her innumerable TV credits include 'Back to Life', 'Silo', 'This Town', 'Dope Girls' and 'The Jewel in the Crown'; recent stage roles include 'Creditors' (Orange Tree) and 'As You Like It' (RSC).

Lerner & Loewe's

My Fair Lady

Book and Lyrics by Alan Jay Lerner

Music by Frederick Loewe

Adapted from George Bernard Shaw's play and Gabriel Pascal's motion picture 'Pygmalion'

Original production directed and staged by Moss Hart

"You see this creature with her curb-stone English; the English that will keep her in the gutter to the end of her days? Well, sir, in six months I could pass her off as a duchess at an Embassy Ball."

Lerner & Loewe's glorious, evergreen musical 'My Fair Lady' – with an overflowing bouquet of ravishing songs including 'The Rain in Spain', 'I Could Have Danced All Night', 'With a Little Bit of Luck' and 'Wouldn't It be Lovely' – has never before been produced at Chichester. With its sparkling dialogue, brilliant lyrics, witty story and gorgeous costumes, this 20th century masterpiece has been described as the perfect musical.

Cockney Eliza Doolittle scrapes a living selling flowers on the streets of London. Her dream of being a lady in a florist's shop is out of reach unless she can speak 'proper English'. So when she encounters Henry Higgins, a professor of phonetics, she seizes the chance to transform her life. Higgins blithely takes on a bet to turn the woman he dismisses as a "squashed cabbage leaf" into a high society paragon. But his impulsive wager becomes a journey of discovery for both him and Eliza.

Lerner & Loewe's multi award-winning musical broke Broadway records when it opened in 1956 and was adapted into the 1964 Oscar-winning film. This brand-new production is directed by Rachel Kavanaugh ('The Music Man', 'Shadowlands', 'Half a Sixpence') with set and costumes by Peter McKintosh ('Top Hat', 'South Pacific', 'Shadowlands') and choreography by Stephen Mear ('Gypsy', 'Mack & Mabel', 'Kiss Me Kate').

Atlantis

By Emily White

“This government isn’t gonna take action until the river Thames is lapping at their fing doorstep!”

In a small coastal village in Wales, Bryn and Gwen learn they will be forced to abandon their cherished home in the face of rising seawater. Their crisis rekindles Gwen’s crusading spirit, cradled at the Greenham Common protests in the 1980s – a commitment inherited by her granddaughter Rhiannon. But as the years pass, their passionate activism threatens to divide mother from daughter, sister from brother, husband from wife.

Emily White’s lyrical, deeply touching and thought-provoking play, winner of the George Devine Award, follows four generations as they discover the cost of saving their home – and the planet.

Priyanga Burford

a small and quiet light

By Stephanie Street

“The current lifespan of an operator is six weeks. That’s the most we can hope for your time out there.”

October 1943. In a small office on the Avenue Foch in Paris, a Gestapo interrogator is questioning a young woman who has been known by many different names: Babuli, Jeanne-Marie, Nora, Madeleine.

As one of the secret agents of Britain’s Special Operations Executive – and the first female radio operator to be sent undercover into France – she has evaded capture far longer than most. But now she has been betrayed.

As she faces the fate she has dreaded so long, memories crowd in – a beloved father, a thwarted lover, a gruelling journey to war, and an endless longing for her childhood piano. What has led her here?

‘a small and quiet light’ is based on the life of Noor-un-Nissa Inayat Khan (1914-1944), an extraordinarily courageous woman who paid the ultimate price for her heroic fight against fascism.

Stephanie Street’s plays include ‘The Reluctant Fundamentalist’ and ‘Sisters’; as an actor, her Chichester credits include ‘Our Generation’ and ‘Quiz’.

Priyanga Burford (‘The Vortex’ CFT, ‘An Enemy of the People’ West End – Olivier nomination, ‘Steeltown Murders’) plays Noor.

Diyan Zora (‘Mom, How Did You Meet The Beatles?’ CFT, English RSC – Olivier Award nomination) co-directs with Elin Schofield (‘Scissors’ Sheffield – UK Theatre Award).

A Midsummer Night's Dream

By William Shakespeare

“Lord, what fools these mortals be!”

Join us in the exuberant, enchanted world of Shakespeare's magical comedy 'A Midsummer Night's Dream'.

Artistic Director Justin Audibert follows 'Hamlet' and his hugely popular Festival Theatre production of 'Redlands', turning from the rock 'n' roll of the 1960s to the Sussex raves of the 1990s for this riotously entertaining new production, co-directed with Hannah Joss ('Choir').

Kicking back against the rules imposed by their stuffy elders, four spirited young lovers take off to a forest thronged with mischievous creatures who march to a different beat.

But the king and queen of the fairies are at loggerheads, and psychedelic potions create startling transformations. For a bunch of budding actors, staging a play proves more of a headache than they bargained for. As traditional values go head to head with hedonism and freedom, amidst a whirl of conflicting desires, how will this madcap night of revels end?

Comedian and satirist Munya Chawawa makes his theatrical debut as Bottom.

Jemima Rooper ('The Norman Conquests' CFT, 'One Man Two Guvnors', 'Geek Girl') plays Titania.

Antigone Exits

By Nina Segal

“You can’t leave a body –
Leave your brother’s body –
Leave it there, like that –”

Antigone’s brother has died in a bloody civil war. The king – her uncle – has forbidden anyone to bury the body. Antigone is going to bury the body anyway.

Twenty-five centuries after Antigone, seven performers gather to re-tell the tale of what is buried and what comes of it. Ancient Greece crashes into the contemporary, as Sophocles’ classic tragedy shines a scorching light onto our current world.

Nina Segal's modern adaptation brings 'Antigone' blazing into the present day. Her previous work includes 'Cow | Deer' (Royal Court), 'We Are The Lucky Ones' (Dutch National Opera) and 'Shooting Hedda Gabler' (Rose Theatre).

Hey! Christmas Tree

Written by Vicki Berwick

From a poem by Michael Morpurgo

Music and Lyrics by Eamonn O'Dwyer

Enchanting, funny and heart-warming, this festive story about the importance of finding friendship and somewhere to call home, created especially for Chichester Festival Theatre by Michael Morpurgo, returns to the Minerva following its hugely popular 2024 premiere.

Tree is rescued from the forest on Christmas Eve by Mavis, the motorbiking park ranger, who lives with her cheeky cat Winston and 9-year-old Yulia, who doesn't want to talk and is a long way from home.

Tree has never had Christmas before and isn't sure about all the decorations he has to wear. But he meets Father Christmas and the Snow Woman, and with Yulia to care for him, he starts to dance. The seasons come and go, Tree grows taller, and soon Christmas comes around once again. And alongside the gifts in their stockings is the best present of all.

Inspired by Michael Morpurgo's book of poems 'My Heart
Was a Tree', and written for the stage by Vicki Berwick, it's a perfect first festive theatre trip for 3 to 7 year olds.

Dale Rooks, whose Chichester productions include 'The Butterfly Lion', 'Running Wild' and 'A Boy Called Christmas', directs.

Stiles & Drewe's

Peter Pan

A musical adventure

Music by George Stiles

Lyrics by Anthony Drewe

In a new version by Anthony Drewe

Based on the book by Willis Hall

Adapted from J.M. Barrie's original play with permission from Great Ormond Street Hospital for Children

"Second star to the right, and then straight on until morning."

One of the most beloved stories of all time, in a wonderful version with songs by Stiles & Drewe ('Honk!', 'The Three Little Pigs', 'Half a Sixpence'), 'Peter Pan' is the perfect Christmas show for all the family.

Join Chichester Festival Youth Theatre in this magical and exciting tale about the three Darling children – Wendy, John and Michael – whose world changes when a boy who doesn't want to grow up flies into their London bedroom, and teaches them how to take wing themselves.

And so begins an awfully big adventure more deliciously dangerous and thrilling than they could ever have imagined. Reaching the island of Never Land, they meet the cheeky fairy Tinker Bell, quarrelsome Lost Boys, mysterious mermaids, rascalion pirates and, of course, the elegant and menacing Captain Hook...!

An unmissable, classic musical adaptation presented by our multi-talented Youth Theatre, supported by a full professional creative team.

InterGen Collective

Dates to be announced

Our new InterGen Collective invites you to their debut performance: a devised piece on the meaning of family, born from collaboration between seasoned theatre-makers and an ensemble of all ages from across our LEAP programme.

Auditions for this company will take place in Spring 2026.
Email leap@cft.org.uk for more information.

Stage the Future

Inspiring the next generation of theatre-makers

We believe the future of theatre begins today – with people who dream of lighting up the stage, creating powerful stories, or bringing productions to life behind the scenes.

Stage the Future is our campaign to raise vital funds to nurture tomorrow's talent and open doors for people from all backgrounds who wish to pursue careers in the creative industries.

Your gift could help a theatre-maker to develop their first production, support an apprentice gaining technical skills for life, or inspire a new director to find their creative voice.

Every donation directly helps people achieve their ambitions and keeps the magic of theatre alive for generations to come.

The Nest

Powered by CFT

Your new go-to venue for something a bit different.

Music, comedy, theatre and a whole lot more. Experience the best fringe and small-scale work from around the UK, including hits from the Edinburgh and Brighton Fringe festivals, and London's Off-West End venues.

In the short time it's been open, more than 60 performances have taken place – from stand-up comedians to The Greatest Card Magician in the World, a Funny Mummy to a football fan with a flare up his arse! And we're just getting started.

It's also home to our regular Creative Conversations series, Open Mic Nights, Scratch Nights and our Future Theatre Makers Festival showcasing the fantastic work of our Artist Development cohort.

It's a space for the talent of tomorrow to develop new work and refine exciting ideas and your chance to catch the next big thing.

So why not give it a try and see what's next in The Nest.

The Festival Experience

Turn your trip to CFT into a full experience with delicious food from our partners, Caper & Berry. Whether you're celebrating, catching up or simply treating yourself, we've got you covered.

Food and drink

The Brasserie

Dine in The Brasserie for a standout experience inspired by the best local produce. Carefully curated two-and three-course menus turn a theatre trip into something truly special.

Minerva Bar

If you're in the mood for something more casual the Minerva Bar is the right place to be. Enjoy light bites including freshly made pizzas, a well-stocked bar and relaxed seating overlooking the beautiful surroundings of Oaklands Park.

Café on the Park

Café on the Park offers a bright, welcoming space for everyone: families, friends and well-behaved dogs. Drop in for expertly brewed coffee, homemade bakes, light lunches and a wide choice of drinks, perfect for refuelling at any time of day.

Festival Theatre Bar

Over in the Festival Theatre Bar, you'll find a fantastic range of drinks ready to enjoy before the show or during the interval.

Pre-Order Interval Drinks

To make the most of your time, pre-order interval drinks before the performance begins or via our app and collect them at the bar.

Foyer Café

For busy Festival Theatre performances, the Foyer Café is also open, offering an extra spot to grab a drink or snack and beat the queues.

Getting here

Find detailed maps and information about your visit at cft.org.uk/getting-here

Chichester Festival Theatre, Oaklands Park, Chichester,
PO16 6AP

Hop on board the Theatre Bus

The 'CFT Theatre Bus', in partnership with Community Transport Sussex and the Pagham and District Residents Association, returns for Festival 2026; helping to reduce transport challenges and enable more people to see our shows.

Visit cft.org.uk/theatre-bus for more information and to book your space.

Coming by public transport?

Chichester is linked by rail to London Victoria, Brighton, Portsmouth and Southampton (change at nearby Havant for London Waterloo). Local bus services are provided by stagecoachbus.com

Bringing a coach group?

Drop off outside of the Festival Theatre and there's a coach park in Via Ravenna.

Cycling in?

There's space for 26 bicycles at our bike park just off Broyle Road. Check out the local cycle network at chichester.gov.uk/cycling

Car-pooling with friends?

Northgate pay and display car park is on our doorstep (parking is free after 8pm). Matinee days are particularly busy so allow plenty of time. chichester.gov.uk/carparks

Blue Badge holder?

You can park anywhere in Northgate car park free of charge and there are nine non-reservable spaces close to the Theatre entrance. If needed you can drop off in front of the Theatre before finding a space, just make sure you enter the site via our access road off Broyle Road.

A Chichester quirk

On Sunday 18 October the car park closes at 6am in preparation for the annual Sloe Fair and will remain closed until midday on Wednesday 21 October.

Booking information and top tips

Here's all the need-to-know information when making your season booking.

Visit our website

The 'Prices & Info' tab on each show page will always have the most up to date prices and availability.

If you have any trouble accessing our website, don't hesitate to contact our friendly Box Office team on 01243 781312 or box.office@cft.org.uk

Book early!

Our cheapest seats go quickly, certain performances are very popular and ticket prices are subject to change – so make sure you get in early to secure the seats you want. On sale prices are guaranteed until 4 March 2026 and are then subject to change.
